

We are pleased to announce that EPRMA has partnered with Credential Check Corporation to provide World Class Screening Solutions to our members. Our association strongly encourages members to utilize background check at all levels of employees and has established this partnership to submit checks at reduced pricing through one on-line secure system. The bundle of free services that EPRMA is offering EPLI policyholder's managers and or supervisors that are newly hired or promoted (within 6 months). The free 3 critical screening services are; National Criminal Index Plus, Social Security Trace and County Level Criminal Checks including alias name searches, below each is described in detail.

To design your own bundle of services for all other employees, please contact Credential Check at (888) 689-2000 or via the web at www.credentialcheck.com. This program allows for your company to login and select either EPRMA members specially priced self-pay or allow EPRMA to pay for the background checks for your newly hired or promoted managers or supervisors.

- National Criminal Index Plus:
 - o Our National Criminal Index Plus (NCIP) identifies criminal records through multifaceted sources across the country county court records, state repository records and records from state Department of Corrections.
 - o All findings are subject to further investigation and verification in compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA).
 - o Our National Criminal file is comprised of over 223 sources including the states' Sex Offender Registries, county records, state repositories, Department of Corrections' records, Office or Foreign Asset Control (OFAC), Interpol, and Denied Person.
- Social Security Trace:
 - o The Social Security trace verifies that the number is valid, the state and date range in which it was issued. In connection with the Social Security trace, Credential Check cross references over 300 indexes to determine additional names and addresses associated with the Social Security number.
- County Level Criminal Checks including alias name searches:
 - o This Search reveals a subject's criminal history, including felony and misdemeanor convictions. These reports include dates associated with the offense, disposition, classification, and sentence.
 - o Various states have restrictions in addition to the FCRA in reference to the use of criminal information. Credential Check Corporation provides guidelines for our clients to access online in regards to these guidelines.
