

AMW clients receive access to invaluable risk management tools:

- An employment law Helpline run by experienced employment attorneys,
- Access to the same discrimination avoidance internet training program utilized by companies such as American Express and the Practicing Law Institute, and
- Criminal background checks for new hires

Employment Law Helpline.

Our clients have unlimited access to the employment attorneys of the law firm of Burke, Warren, MacKay & Serritella for employment-related questions. The firm can also assist you with handbooks or other HR documents. Please have your policy number available when you call the Help Line, 1-877-376-4100.

Comply America Internet-Based Training.

Our clients are eligible to register for and complete Comply America's internet-based training courses, both now available in Spanish and English. For access to the training, please go to www.complyamerica.com. The courses, which have been approved by the Federal Courts and the EEOC, are described below:

- Comply America Manager's Course. This course is designed for managers/supervisors who hire, fire, supervise or manage employees. The interactive training course is three courses in one, covering the following topics: best practices for preventing all forms of discrimination and sexual harassment, proper techniques for hiring and promoting, ADA and Family Leave Act.
- Comply America Employee's Course - Sexual Harassment Prevention. This course is designed for all employees. The training empowers employees to fully understand and act upon your company's discrimination and harassment prevention policies.

Criminal background checks for new hires.

- Criminal background checks conducted by certified experts will reduce your franchise's risk of hiring high risk employees.

Additional Available Services (optional):

- On-site Training by Burke, Warren, MacKay & Serritella
- HR Resource Library
